THURSDAY::

The Whig Conventions The rumor, which no doubt has reached the oars of most of our readers, and occasionally found its way into the public prints, that the Whig Conventions that are to meet here on the 3d and 4th days of July were to be packed for Mr. Fillmore, is, it seems, about to turn out true.

In all the northern counties of the State, where delegations have been appointed, the whole thing has been managed by Joshua Bell, a Free-Soil Whig, and malignant hater of the Democratic party. His delegates will, of course, pursue any ccurse which will aid the cause of Black Repub-

In other counties, where the abolition sympathizers had not strength enough to carry out their schemes, Know-Nothings have flocked to the meetings of the "Old-Line Whigs" and voted down all propositions to appoint delegates to the

We find in two of vesterday morning's papers the names of the delegates from this city, an inspection of which will satisfy all who know any thing about them, that "Old-Line Whiggery' in this city, means a compound of Know-Nothing-A. A. Gordon, L. L. Shreve, Bland Ballard, Wm. F. Pettit, W. B. Belknap, Thomas Ander-son, A. O. Brannin, Benjamin J. Adams, Judge Pirtle. ism and Abolitionism. Here are the names:

A. A. Gordon, the first on the list, is a ram pant emancipationist and has uniformly voted with the Know Nothings since the birth of that vicious faction, and has (we are informed) frequently declared that he never had and never would vote for a Democrat. L. L. Shreve (although probably not a sworn member of the order,) is aregular voter with him, and so bitter a hater of the Democratic party that he is silly enough to pretend to believe that Buchanan will be beaten by both Fremont and Fillmore

Bland Ballard is an Abolitionist and has frequently expressed his preference for Seward over preference, but he would doubtless vote for Fill- life. more as a means of indirectly aiding the Black Republicana.

Belknap is one of the men who proscribed the Louisville Democrat for abusing the Know Nothings and exposing the atrocities they committed on the 6th of last August. Anderson is an avowed supporter of Know Nothingism, and Brannon of course is the same or he would not have been appointed. Benj. J. Adams has been one of the most activ coadjutors and supporters of Know Nothingism, and if reports be true, has bled very profusely for Judge Pirtle has declared over his own signature, in a letter (published in all the papers of the city) that he has been a Know Nothing for twenty years, and intends to support Fillmore and Donelson, and was even silly enough to say that he believed their election necessary to the salvation of the Union.

Democratic State Electors. Hons. Elijah Hise and John C. Breckinridge by the 8th of January Convention. By the nomination of Mr. Breckinridge for the Vice Presidency, his position as Elector was vacated, and we understand that the Kentucky Delegation at Cincinnati unanimously recommended to the Central Committee the appointment of Col. John W. Stevenson, of Covington, to fill the vacancy. The Central Committee, however, have not yet made the appointment, and thus far the Demccratic party of the State has not opened the canvasc. True, a few of our Electors are in the field doing their duty, but they are only a few. The others are literally doing nothing.

Many Democrate have stoken to us on the subject, and have urged us to call upon the Committre and upon the Electors to be up and doing. The Central Committee should have no doubts as to their duty. The whole party in the State desires the nomination of Col. Stevenson, and he should be given his commission immediately, that he may commence the canvass.

Every Elector in the State should be at work. The Know Nothings are in the field in full array. If we would not lose the State in November, the cenvass should be commenced in earnest. If any of our Electors cannot give the time, or have not the disposition to perform their duty, they should resign, and let other men take their

FILLMORE MOVEMENTS IN OHIO .- The Know Nothing Executive Conneil of Ohio, at a late meeting, have resolved to hold a grand mass meeting Ticket, which will be zealously supported by evof Mr. Fillmore's friends at Columbus, on Wed-

tion, no matter under what pretext it may be of-fered, with any other party or parties, in the ap-proaching congressional and county elections, but in all of said districts and counties to make purely American nominations, and faithfully and honestly support them. estly support them, regardless of success or

The "Ten Cente a Day" ubarge. So triumphant and overwhelming has been the refutation, by the Democratic press of the courtry, of the vile calumny that Mr. Buchanan farored the reduction of the wages of laboring men to "ten cents a day," that we never expected to hear it again repeated by a respectable man .-But it seems that the the Hon. Garret Davis does not deem it unbecoming his character to utter the falsehood and pledge his personal honor to the truth of it. Probably the honorable gentleman is right in supposing that no falsehood he degradation his political character. It is a remarkable fact, and one which strikingly illustrates the dignity and urbanity of Mr. Buchanan, that during his long senatorial career, there are but two instances in which he was involved in personal altereations with any of his fellow members. Both of these instances were connected with the "teu cents a day" charge, which now forms the principle staple for mendasions Know Nothing speeches. This charge, says the Union, touched Mr. Buchanan on a point on which he was peculiar sensitive. It implied that he underrated the importance and character of the laboring men of the working man. This sentiment constituted charge was falsely deduced. When Mr. Davis, be cordially with us in November next. of Massachusetts, therefore, so far misinterpreted or misrepresented Mr. Buchanan's position as to deduce from that speech the charge of hostility to the interests of laboring men, it is not surprising that Mr. Buchanan repelled the injury in the strongest language that he could command. The controversy became bitter and personal; but Mr. Davis was constrained to admit that the speech contained no such sentiment as had been | princip charged upon Mr. Buchanan.

The other instance alluded to occurred in one of those piquant but pleasant rencontres between Mr. Clay and Mr. Buchanan which frequently enlivened the debates of the Senate and excited vetoed the fiscal bank in 1841, and the Democratic Senators did not restrain the expression of their gratification. Mr. Clay resorted to a mode of warfare in which he had few competitors-he drew a picture of a portion of the Democratic Senators visiting Mr. Tyler to congratulate him, and in the foreground he placed Mr. Buchanan as the organ and spokesman of the Democrats. It was done in inimitable style and in a vein of great pleasantry, but in the course of his remarks he alluded to the "ten-cents" charge. When he closed Mr. Buchanan said he had listened with pleasure to all he had said except his "allnsion to the electioneeering slang of the late contest on the subject of low wages." "This remark." said Mr. Buchanan, was wholly unworthy of that Senator, and he intended to answer it as it deserved. Mr. Clay interposed, and, like a truly generous and brave man, assured Mr. Buchanau that his remark 'had been uttered merely in a playful manner, and was not intended to wound the Senator's feelings in the least." Mr. Buchanan accepted the explanation, and said "he was glad they were friends again." We give these incidents as well to illustrate the character of Mr. Buchanan for gentlemanly and courteous bearing as to show that he was prompt and decided in repelling unjust aggressions. They show, moreover, how utterly baseless was the charge out of which the collisions grew, and ilustrate the relations of cordial friendship which any candidate who approved the repeal of the existed between Mr. Clay and Mr. Buchanan-a Missouri restriction. Can You Carry New York! We put this question to our neighbor of the North American. Can the electoral vote of the Empire State be seenred by any possibility for Col. Fremont? Was the Democratic party of that great State ever known to suffer a defeat when firmly united, as they are at present? It is idle to talk about the State of New York riving a Black Republican electoral vote with Mr. Fillmore in the field. Even if Mr. F. should be compelled to withdraw, there would be no hope for Col. Fremont. The State of New York will surely give her electoral vote for James Bnhanan, as that the snn will rise on the morning of the 4th of next November.

LEXINGTON, KY., June 28, 1856.

The platform adopted by the Convention has my cordial approval. I regard it as the only basis on which the Union can be preserved in its original spirit. Adopted as it was by the States, ts hows that amidst the distractions of the times there remains one united and powerful organization, whose common principles extend over every foot of Territory covered by the federal constitation. After the recent repeated and deplora-ble failures of other parties to present to the conntry a national organization, we may justly ongratulate the States upon the unanimity marked the proceedings of the Democratic Con-vention—and the patriot may point to the fact as a pledge of constitutional Union, that the delegates from Maine and Texas—from South Caro-lina and California, were as thoroughly united upon every question of principle, as those from the neighboring Southern States of Tennessee and Kentucky, or those from the neighboring Northern States of Wisconsin and Michigan.

This community of sentiment, this feeling of brotherhood, gives hope of perpetnal Union. It has been the happy fortune of the Democratic parameters. ty, by adhering to the constitution, which was made to protect us all, to avoid the geographical and sectional issues against which Washington solemnly warned his countrymen; and we have every reason to believe, that it is yet equal to the high duty which now devolves on it of preserving the constitution and maintaining the rights of every portion of the confederacy. If the unsound elements which troubled it for a time, have sought congenial associations elesewhere, the loss has been more than supplied by accessions from the flower of the old whig party—and thus reinforced, it will be the destiny of the De-mocracy, under the lead of their distinguished cheif, to maintain the high position of our coun-

In the number of the Review of Angust 24, 1829, Prentice, in one of his leaders a column and a half, defends the Catholics with a zeal and ardor fully as great, and a thousold line Whigs in Mahoning county have already and times more honest, than that with which he now pursues them. Colonel Hodge has given these quotations at large, in his communication in another column. Prentice there declares he has no sympathy with the prejudices against the Catholics, among whom there are such illustri-ons names as Fenelon, Lafayettee and Charles Carroll. He pays them and other Catholics the highest compliments; defends them with great earnestness against the charge of religions intoler-The Boston Conrier, the ablest old line Whig ance; asserts that in England, Scotland and Ireland they have been uniformily champions of Such was the position of George D. Prentice ln 1829, as the editor of the Hartford, Weekly Review. Compare it with the present position of the Louisville Journal, and we have one of the most melancholy instances over presented of the prostitution of intellect and conscience to the uses of faction. The opinions which the Journal now utters are precisely those which the Review denounced and refuted. They are opinions, too, of that character which are never bonestly changed—opinions founded upon historical facts didate, may possibly carry six States, but beyond Had the body which met -which no subsequent events have afforded the some time ago—in Washington, was it?—and called itself the Guano Convention, nominated a candidate for the Presidency, he would have about as much chance for success as the candielightest pretext for changing or modifying. But this is not the only subject upon which Prentice stands convicted by Col. Hodge of an unparalleled inconsistency. He now claims to be a Southern Pro-slavery organ, and sits in judgment upon the integrity and fidelity of Southern born his wit and abuse. One, to read his bitter and vindictive denunciations of the New Englanders, would imagine that Prentice was born in South candidate, the supposition is wild. That State carolina, was nursed by a negro, and brought is slavery ridden. Both the Whig and Democratup on a plantation. They would certainly never up on a plantation. They would certainly never imagine that, as the editor of the Hartford Week-

"THE PURCHASE OF TEXAS MUST BE OFFOSED. EVERY MAN WHO DOES NOT WISH TO SEE THE FOWER OF THE NORTHERN AND WESTERN STATES DEPARTFOREVER; EVERY MAN WHO DOES NOT WISH TO SEE A DOZEN NEW SLAVE STATES ADDED TO THE UNION, AND TO SHART THE CRIES OF ADDITIONAL MILLIPONS OF WRETCHED HOPOROES GOING UP TO MEET THE LURD IN IN THE AIR AND IMPRECATE VENGEARCE UPON OUR LAND, WILL OFFOSE THE FURCHASE OF TEXAS WITH A DEEP AND IMPRESISTABLE DETERMIXATION."

This is language quite as strong as any that Gerrit Smith or Fred. Douglass would employ. These sentiments of Prentice, in 1829, have, it is well known, never been changed. Indeed, their existence has been frequently manifested during his management of a Southern journal. They were expressed in his life of Clay and have leaked out in his anguarded editorals, and yet be assumes to be the defender of the South and of slavery!

So much for the expose of Colonel Hodge, is o-day's Enquirer, which we recommend as remarkably interesting reading. There is another similar incident-indeed, there are many others -but this is the one for which alone we have now room, which will close this record of the most brilliantly inconsistent and contradictory man that ever dared to lead public sentiment and to pass judgment upon his fellow men.

Prentice has, quite recently, sought to arrest the swelling tide of Buchananism, which is grad-ually swallowing up the old Whig party in the State, by reviving the story which connected Mr. Buchanan's name with the bribery and corruption charge against Mr, Clay. The attempt to associate Mr. Buchanan with aught that is dishonorable or unmanly, is one from which less audacious men than Prentice would shrink.— But Prentice does not stop at any misrepresenta-tion and slander to injure a political opponent. It is fortunate that his record is so voluminous a one that it is quite easy to extract the sting from his malicious imputations, by producing some evidence that at previous periods of his life, when not tempted from truth and honesty, he has confessed and acknowledged the falsehood and baseness which he now justifies and endorses. In 1831 Prentice wrote and published the Biography of Mr. Clay.

We have now the work before us. After referring to the Kremer story and tracing it to its explosion, after justifying Mr. Clay's vote for Mr. Adams for the Presidency, Prentice thus refers to the charge of "bargain" which it had been supposed was put to rest by the investigation in the House of Representatives:

Gentlemen:—I have received your letter of the 13th inst., giving me official information of my nomination by the Democratic National Convention, for the office of Vice President of the United States. I feel profoundly grateful to the Democracy for this distinction, so far above my merits and expectations, and accept the nomination, with the pledge that if it should result in imposing on me any public duties, I shall exert whatever power I possess to discharge them with fidelity.

The Convention wisely selected for the first place in the Government, an eminent statesman whose character and public services furnish a guarantee that his administration will command confidence at home and respect abroad.

The platform adopted by the Convention has

we do not, however, intend to proceed further in our exposure of his inconsistencies and infi-delities. Our quiver has been barely touched.— It contains arrows that we would not like to use even when sorely provoked. We despise the habit of personal crimination and recrimination. It is a nuisance to newspaper readers, who care little about the past opinions or acts of editors, or their private affairs. Neither to attack nor to defend could we be lightly provoked to engage in such a warfare. What we have said of Prentice has been in reference to his political career. What we may say of him depends upon the direction which he may give to the discussion.

Ladies Beware. YOU that have double glass, patent, balsam sealed, ever fading Ambrotypes in your possession don't put them in your drawers, or on your table, or any where so that they may come in contact with your clothing, espe-cially during this bot weather. Balsam is a kind of cheap rule turpentine, and, like a discontented negro, there' no telling when it will run away, in which case your pic ture is spotted and spoiled, your dresses are bedaubed and soiled, and if the balsant stays between the glasses, it is liable to become yellow or smoky, and sometimes quite black, so that your picture appears to be 'looking through ine and satisfy yourself.) Not one in lear Ambrotypes pul up one year ago (with balsam) are perfect now; and we will wager that at least four opperators in this city can make better and more durable pictures on single glass than are made by the double glass process. believe the only way the latter can be made perfectly se cure is to seal them up in tin cans like sardines.

There is probably no class of diseases which are so wiste spread in their nature and so terrable in their results as the diseases of the throat and sings. It, therefore, becomes a matter of carnest solicitate to the profession to knows of there be any means whereby those diseases can be controlled and ameliorated.

Dr. R. Humer and myself have made these diseases our own peculiar study for several years, and we have found that the only means whereby these diseases can be reached is by direct local application, or the prescribing of medicuses which are breathed into the Imags in the form of vapor, and are consequently bought in contact with the whole internal surface of the lungs. The success of our treatment has fully sustained the theory.

FRANCE.—The Emperor Napoleon is taking steps to have the Empress appointed regent for her son. The project of a law on the subject has been sent to the Senate and debated with closed doors. It proposes that in case of the Emperor's demise the Empress shall reign, assisted by a council of regency, whose names the Emperor will leave under a sealed envelope.

The Government papers are writing upon the project. The Moniteur gives the project of Senators and the Committee on the Regency, and states that the Empress will be regent and guardian of her son during his minority, but is not to contract a second marriage while it continues. In case of the death of the Empress the regency to pass to the senior prince of France and thence to the other princes in the order of hereditary succession, and failing them all, to the Council ITALY. At that period there was reason to expect an immediate discussion of the question, and therefore he might have thought that explanations at that time were premature.— He thought it important that the house should know as soon as possible the nature of the reply the Government intended to give to Mr. Marcy's despatch respecting the dismissal of Mr. Crampton. He wished to know when the Government would be prepared to lay their reply to Mr. Marcy on the table, Lord Palmerston said that Mr. Gladstone rightly understood the motives that induced him to abstain on Monday from making observations upon the subject. Motives equally as strong prevailed on the present occasion. He would there fore say in reply to the question that he had no Mr. Marcy, in the course of next week, and pro

PRILADELPAIA, July 2.

The extensive pier at Reid street wharf caved in last night while occupied by about 75 persons mostly women and children enjoying the breeze from Delaware. Spear's wharf tell over crushing down the bridge over the slnice. Escape was difficult as connection with the main land was cut off. Large numbers were saved by boats from the receiving ship Union, Twelve or fifteen women and children perished. Very few bodies have been recovered.

The wharf of Gale, Dudley & Co., at Cambridge port, was burned last night, together with a large stock of lumber. The loss is $40,000. Several adjoining buildings were also burned. Two engines were likewise burned—the engine men escaping with difficulty and some jumping overboard. No lives were lost.

The steamship America sailed at noon to-day for Liverpool via Halifax, with 140 passengers and nearly 1,100,000 in specie.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1. Late postmaster Kendall committed an assault on McKay, district attorney, for something coacerulog Kendall for robbing the mail. The assault was particularly bantal. McKay is seriously injured. Acade has been arrested. (No more report to-night. Line down beyond Wheeling.)

THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS-FOURTH SEM

SION. Washington, July 2d, P SENATE.—The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of State, transmitting the original journal of the proceedings of the Board of American Commissioners at Paris to liquidate and audit the claims of American citizens against the French Government, being for debts due them, and for the satisfaction of which, provision was made by the Convention between the United States and France, April 30,

Mr. Clayton said the report was made in answer to a resolution submitted by him some time ago. He desired to call attention to the document, because it completely refuted the ground upon which the President based his veto of the French Spojiation bill. That veto rested on the assumed basis that the claims for spoliations were all examined and allowed under the treaty of 1803, but this document discloses the fact that so far from this, they were excluded for the reason that the Commissioners had nothing to do with them. He alluded to the fact, that many with them. He alluded to the fact, that many years since, he examined the subject when it was before the Senate, being a member of the Select Committee of which Dan.' I Webster was chairman. Mr. Webster took no part in the matter. Mr. Clayton being second on the committee, iuvestigated the subject and reported the bill, which contrary to the expectations of many which, contrary to the expectations of many friends, passed both Houses by a decided major ity, but unfortunately encountered the veto of resident Polk. Afterwards another bill similar o that passed Congress, but was vetoed by Pres Pierce, but the latter veto was not based upon the same reason as the former, and any Sen who would take pains to examine the docume now before the Senate, would see that the who foundation of President Pierce's veto was error; in fact, he added, that his sympathies were strongly in favor of these claimants, and he hoped some measure would be done for them.

House.—Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, asked leave to offer a resolution changing the daily hour of meeting from 12 to 11 o'clock. Mr. Jones, of Tenn., objected unless the time

r the adjournment of Congress should be first Mr. Giddings: No bargains. Mr. Houston moved to take up the Senator's diournment regulation Mr. Mattesou and others objected. The reading of the report of the Kausas stigating committee was then resumed. The bill granting the right of way to the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad through the arsenal magazines and Jefferson barreks tracks

The Kansas bill was taken up. Mr. Wade said he stood up to advocate no nev doctrine, but the great principle of equal rights to all men, black and white. That was the doctrine of the fathers of this republic. In alluding to the passage of the compromise measures of 1852, which were called finality, he remarked that the democratic party had put the present administration into power upon the platform that they would resise the agitation of slavery.

He did not know how they intended to resist, whether with bludgeons or otherwise. However, they had no right to restst the agitation of any subject. He stood here to resist all attempts to infringe on the rights of free speech, whatever might be the consequence. He opposed the bill under consideration, and criticised the political Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, moved the further

THE subscribers beg leave to call the attention of dealers, professors, and others withing to purchase Paino Forces, to the extensive as sortment of their improved circular scale full 1ron frame instruments, now on hand and ready for finishing. By the erection of a large auditional factory building, they are prepared, should the wante of the trade demand it, to turn out seven instruments per week, or 200 Pianos per annum. Buyers may rely upon getting Instruments fully equal, in all the requisites of a good Piano, to any made in the United States, and at a saving of trom 26 to 8 obliars on each instrument. All the wood used in our manufactory is thoroughly seasoned, and no pains or expense are spared in turning out each Plano perfect in every respect. For two consecutive years the Agricultural Arso intion and Mechanics' institute have awarded first premiums to those Pianos over all others when in competition.

All those who may confide their cases to him may rest assured of having the disease effectually cured, and every vestage of the disfaculties perfertectly eradicated from their constitutions.

Bruictures of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, general derangement of the whole constitution must ensue, a continuance of which will bring on a train of symptoms to be dreaded, and will undermine the constitution and cause promainer old age.

Bruicture with a different consideration will be given to this disease, and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on, in many cases, by the deciructive habits of inconsiderate youth, and excessive indulgence of the passions, which tindermine the constitution, rendering the subject unif fife either business, or society, and causing premature old age.

Mis success in curing all those of the above difficulty, with the exception of a few, of the many hundred patients who have come under his care during the last thirty years of his practice enables him effectivally to restore to health such cases as have been considered incorable. Pain in the pit of the stonach, or towards the right side, Saflowness of complexion,
Depression of spuris and urritability of temper, &c.
If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause ot, and very frequently terminates in consumption I would impress upon the mind that to trifte with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal belings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousuesa of folly to the penalty of pain.
This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate atomach can be ar it conven fently, and it is given with perfect a fetty, in minute doses to the most tender infants, its properties being of a arrengthening and mysgorating nature. It is neatly put

The following testinonials from some well known and respectable cutzens of Philadelphia, are tully corroborative of the tried effects of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

Attetsation. We, having used William's Anti-Dyspectic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great plea sure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dys-pepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing a psin and uneasiness, and unparting a healthy tone to the stormali.

This jist of names could be extended to almost any length, but the foregoing is deemed sufficient. Testimony of Mr. Michael Duna, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Exchange, corroborative of the efficacy of Williams's Anu-Dyspeptic Elizir.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I heen more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time beling, truly wretched. Fortusately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elizir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with meutal and hodily leadth, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed slinost mi regulous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
